Hi,

Here is the Note to Reviewers to include on the ERD site as a separate file. I went ahead and PDF'd it. We've been given the go ahead to post BaP today but it needs to be closer to COB.

Can you load this and the other documents, and finalize the staging site? I'll look at the staging really quick and then let you know if we could go live?

Hi Maureen,

A few additional edits and then we wait until I get final go ahead and edits from Lynn and Vince. No earlier than Thursday.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I assume as we are ready to go live, we'll have the public comment draft at the bottom similar to the interagency draft.

Thanks for all of your hard work, I know it's a crazy time.

Samantha

Good morning Jamie,

Here is the staging site for BaP, if you want to look this over - I need updates on the milestones and next steps.

We sent the supplemental last Friday is it reasonable to expect we would see that tomorrow given the 4 day turnaround time? Can we expect to see the TR Monday? Recognizing that we may have some back and forth if there are issues. Thus, being able to post next Thursday? Does that work for you?

Honestly, I just received the ERD and charge this morning. So it might take us a couple days to have something to show you. Usually we like about 4-6 days for all the reviews.

Maureen,
Samantha asked me to check in with you for an estimate on when you think the BaP docs will be ready...trying to gauge when we will post them.

Thanks,
Jamie
